

Partnership Announcement

Alliant International University is happy to announce our partnership with Altus Schools! Through this partnership, Altus employees can further their education and benefit from a tuition reduction and an Application Fee Waiver when enrolling as a full time new student.

Alliant offers a wide variety of programs, degrees, and certifications through our five schools: California School of Education, California School of Professional Psychology, California School of Management and Leadership, California School of Forensic Studies, and the San Francisco Law School. Each of our programs is designed to help develop professionals to do meaningful work that makes a lasting impact. Our approach to education combines theory and practice; scholarship and application. Alliant is accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC).

For more information about our programs and/or your Altus Employee Tuition Reduction, please contact Johnna Sangster at johnna.sangster@alliant.edu or call her at (858) 635-4633.
