5.10.2 Internal Communications

Bixby reminded the Board that they periodically receive emails from us that include videos with different types of activities that represent the Schools. It is a way of getting to know us better. We have focused this year on internal communications as we move more to becoming a more hybrid workplace, which has worked well for us. As we work online and meeting online, we find that we are as productive, if not more, and we get a great deal done that way. We have a wonderful culture, a culture that is foundational and creates a base for innovation. It is critical that we stay in touch with all our staff. We have the sense of being Altus schools, a collection of a lot of wonderful individual schools. I would like to give a “shout out,” to the Communications Department (Golledge and Akle) for primarily helping us to bring together some wonderful and inspiring moments in the life of our Schools. It is helpful to not only to inspire teamwork and collaboration, but also to give a sense of belonging. This also helps with our extraordinary employee retention rates.

5.10.3 Manager Training

Bixby reported that we have always done management training. We are embarking on a more concerted effort that Akle will champion this initiative for the year. Bixby is working on the development and the presentation of a series of workshops that help prepare our managers for things like creating expectations, and expectations for outcomes for staff that people are guiding, and how to deal with difficult dialogs. There are a series of eight items that will begin in January. We believe that leadership exists at every level, and we also realize that our positional leaders have some unique skills that they need help with developing.

5.10.4 Conferences: California Charter Schools Association (CCSA), Charter Schools

Development Center (CSDC), and Baldrige

Bixby noted that we are involved in attending various conferences that are offered. There are different staff members that attend the different conferences. This year we have select staff members that will be presenting and attending the Malcom Baldrige Conference. We have staff members that go out across the country to present, to share, to learn.

Also, we have local conferences where staff participate, for example, in the WASC Accreditation Team Visits.

We live a vibrant life in terms of working with the Education, Business and Hospital sector.
